57. Please identify any specific initiatives/good practices in your country, involving RBC and other policy areas like public procurement, trade and investment, and/or SOEs. (1036018)

Type: (T/text-long)

In Spain, several initiatives and good practices incorporate Responsible Business Conduct (RBC) across key policy areas, such as public procurement, trade and investment, and State-Owned Enterprises (SOEs). The following highlights notable practices:

1. Public Procurement:

- Ley de Contratos del Sector Público (LCSP) (Law on Public Sector Contracts) mandates social and environmental criteria in public procurement processes. This law ensures that RBC principles are adhered to by integrating ethical guidelines, sustainability requirements, and fair labor practices into contracts awarded by public entities.

2. Trade and Investment:

- The Spanish National Action Plan on Business and Human Rights (adopted in 2017) emphasizes RBC in international trade and investment. This framework aligns with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and encourages Spanish companies operating abroad to respect human rights and adopt sustainable practices.

3. State-Owned Enterprises (SOEs):

- SEPI (Sociedad Estatal de Participaciones Industriales) oversees SOEs and enforces RBC-related standards in governance and operations, ensuring transparency, sustainability, and ethical business practices.

- Specific SOEs, such as Renfe (railway operator) and Correos (postal service), have developed CSR strategies that focus on reducing environmental impact, improving labor standards, and supporting community development.
